RMOTHG NEWS FOR OCTOBER

Greetings Over the Hill Gang members! If you're like me you are wondering where September went!

October is beautiful in the mountains but watch out for early snows!

The RMOTHG Annual Meeting was well attended and everyone enjoyed the beauty of the Fossil Trace golf course. Our speaker from Denver Museum of Nature and Science was very entertaining and informative. We'd like to have him back for another event.

See below for news about the Holiday Party.

In this newsletter we are also honoring and thanking our Volunteers for 2024-25. Without them, there would be no "Gang".

SAVE THE DATE: Sunday December 7

Time to be announced but the Board is looking for a late afternoon start time. Look for details in the November newsletter.

WE WOULD LIKE TO EXTEND A HUGE THANK YOU TO OUR 24-25 VOLUNTEERS!! YOU MAKE ALL THE DIFFERENCE AND YOU ARE APPRECIATED!

Welcome to our new Board Members Teresa Brandon and Jerry Clayton.

When you see Teresa or Jerry, thank them for stepping up to the Board!

Hey bikers - stay in shape this winter with a brand new Rad Sportz Max Racer Stationary Bike Trainer. The package has never been opened. It's basically a stand that you use your own bike with. Contact Martha Mustard for more information at
