

Colorado Mountain Club

“Seven Trips in the Wilds of Alaska”

Rudy Schmiedt is a true adventurer, and while living and working in New York state, Wyoming, Montana, Colorado and Nepal, he has enjoyed the wilderness, mountains, rivers and forests he loves. Rudy, a CMC member, has explored our “Last Frontier” of Alaska on multiple adventurous trips.

DATE:            Wednesday, September 26, 2018

TIME:            Social at 7:00 p.m., Presentation at 7:30 p.m.

LOCATION: Fort Collins Senior Center, 1200 Raintree Dr., Foxtail #2 Meeting Room

Join the Colorado Mountain Club Fort Collins Group for a great evening as Rudy Schmiedt shares his amazing adventures in beautiful Alaska on wild rivers and backpacking in the Brooks Range, Glacier Bay, Wrangell St. Elias Park, Denali Park, Katmai, and the Kodiak Islands. Rudy has rafted or kayaked hundreds of miles on several class 3 and 4 rivers, sometimes solo! He has experienced backpacking in the pristine wilderness while encountering bears, moose, caribou and much more. His Alaskan adventures include over a hundred miles of kayaking in the stunning Glacier Bay. Let's be inspired together as Rudy shares his passion for the wilderness with us!