

COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Colorado Mountain Club's collections, which were acquired through purchases and contributions since the Club's inception, are not recognized as assets on the statement of financial position. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets in the year in which the items are acquired, or as temporarily or permanently restricted net assets if the assets used to purchase the items are restricted by donors. Contributed collection items are not reflected on the financial statements. Proceeds from disposals or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes.

Part III, line 4:

Part XIII Supplemental Information (continued)

Colorado Mountain Club's collections consist of many items including current and historical books, periodicals, journals, videos, photographs, maps, manuscripts, correspondence, log books and research papers covering all aspects of mountaineering. All of these collections are held for educational and research purposes. Each of these collection items is cataloged, preserved, and cared for, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed. The collections are subject to a policy that requires proceeds from their sales to be used to support the Club's collections.

Part V, line 4:

The Eckart Roder Denver Group Education Fund (a permanently restricted endowment) was established to provide support for the education programs of the Colorado Mountain Club. The Mary Stockdill Education Scholarship Fund (a temporarily restricted endowment) was established to provide financial support for girls primarily younger than age 12 (twelve) to attend CMC educational programs that include climbing and/or outdoor education components. The William D. Piety Perpetual Conservation Endowment Fund (a permanently restricted endowment) was established to provide financial support for the activities and programs of the CMC's Conservation Department, including but not limited to preserving and protecting wild lands and engaging CMC members and youth in stewardship projects throughout Colorado. Scientific research, outdoor education, and long term conservation of biologically rich and rare lands for future generations is paramount to the William D. Piety Perpetual Conservation Endowment Fund.

The board designated endowment was established to provide support for future operations.

Part X, Line 2:

The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statements of activities. As of September 30, 2016, CMC had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

CMC is generally no longer subject to U.S. federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2013.
