Seeking Monthly Newsletter Content

We are seeking new trip leaders! The free training consists of self-paced modules that include:
- Hiking and Backpacking
- Climbing
- Mountaineering
- Outdoor Safety
- Leadership
- Field Days

You can check the CMC calendar (typically on the front range or via ZOOM), we can arrange field days on this side of the state. If non-members are interested in enrollment, the registration is open to any member statewide. If you are interested please contact WSGofCMC@gmail.com or check the CMC calendar (typically on the front range or via ZOOM).

COVID policy for trips:

- All members and guests must sign a new COVID policy.
- If you have tested positive for COVID-19, you must get a negative test before joining the trip.
- Only 100% vaccinated members and guests are allowed to attend events.
- Attendees must wear masks when social distancing cannot be maintained.
- Social distancing measures are in place during the event. We encourage attendees to follow CDC guidelines.
- If a COVID case is reported, the event will be canceled. Attendees will be notified immediately.

Welcome New GJ Trip Leader, Victor Marshall!

Victor Marshall has been hiking on the West Slope for over 35 years. He is a retired high school teacher from Palisade, Colorado. Victor and his wife Terra moved to the area in 1986 so he could continue his lifelong love of hiking and backpacking. Victor has been hiking and backpacking in the western United States most of his life. Most notably, he has backpacked the John Muir Trail in California's Sierra Mountains. He is a retired environmental engineer where he focused on the restoration of abandoned mines and mountain streams. Victor and his wife Terra currently live in Fruita, Colorado. They have two grown daughters and one grandson.
